Overview of network partner:

Why PostFinance is your partner for e-billing – the key points:

Swiss market leader: Switzerland's biggest e-bill network with the most invoice issuers, invoice recipients and software and Interconnect partners. Around 130 software partners work in cooperation with PostFinance, making access to our services easier than ever before. Our connection to 16 Interconnect partners enables the best possible connectivity for e-billing in Switzerland and around the world.

20 years of experience in e-billing: You benefit from our many years' experience in payment transactions and e-billing as well as from our extensive expertise. You will receive support from our highly experienced experts for the digitization of your invoice and payment transaction processes.

We provide everything from a single source: eBill, electronic invoice (B2B) and QRR: as a well-established provider, PostFinance provides unique, two-way customer access thanks to its dual role as an e-bill provider and financial institution. We actively help to promote eBill and electronic invoicing to extend the number of digital invoice recipients as we have relationships with invoice recipients for eBill and can influence its future development. Our customers benefit from a contact partner for all processes and comprehensive advice.

Ongoing development of the solution: PostFinance focuses on the consistent development of its solution to enable customers to structure their accounts receivable and accounts payable processes as simply as possible. We have developed a new, modern eInvoicing portal and have created a connection to SAP Ariba. As a network partner of eBill and a financial institution, we are actively committed to developing additional features for invoice issuers and recipients and implementing them promptly.

Fair prices: our pricing is transparent and fair – there are no additional hidden costs.

Billing solutions for B2C (eBill) and B2B is a key strategic business area for PostFinance. Find out for yourself just what we can do and contact us by e-mailing e-rechnung@postfinance.ch.
